

CAPM

CAPM or Certified Associate Project Management is a certification of PMI for entry level. During start of career in project management, it is appropriate. It will assist to differentiate you from your contestants. It is truly a fundamental path of project management. Professionals attend CAPM courses online or classroom CAPM certification training courses, to meet CAPM requirements, and appear in CAPM testing center. CAPM certification classes are conducted at all major cities. CAPM will develop effectiveness and reliability while functioning as a member project team. A combination of MBA CAPM will be significantly useful to improve the career profile, and enhance job opportunities.

PMP

PMP certification is a program offered by Project Management Institute PMI. PMP certification can be obtained after 35 hours of PMP training, and subsequently appearing in the PMP exam. PMP certification is an acknowledged certification designed for project managers. Becoming a PMP enables to function with any industry or methodology. PMP training includes a wide range of techniques necessary for project management, and skills that are essential to execute projects, and manage the project team. PMP certification is managed by PMI Project Management Institute in the USA, and has acquired recognition in Asia and Europe.